Dignitaries attend roof wetting ceremony

Government officials and business people attended the roof wetting ceremony of the multi-million Rand Science Park, The Innovation Hub in Pretoria, which is part of Gauteng Blue IQ Smart Industries initiative. Paul Mashatile, Gauteng Finance and Economic Affairs MEC (int), discusses the issue. Dr Neville Comins, The Innovation Hub CEO (int), says about R226 million will be spent on the project, and that so far a total of about R100 million has been spent.
